

European Prison Education Association

Welcome to our February Newsletter

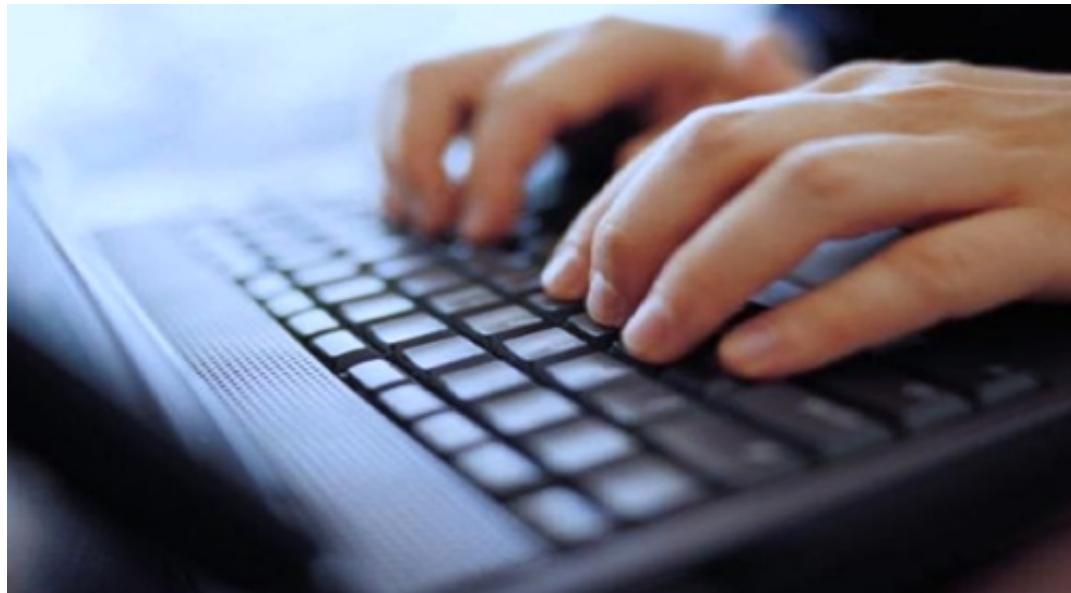

A former Danish prime minister always praise the beginning of Spring saying we have two wonderful summers ahead of us and only one winter. With these optimistic words we hope the EPEA February Newsletter will finds you good.

We have a Steering Committee meeting ahead of us, being held in Vienna to study the next conference venue and meet with the key organisers. The committee meeting will be March 24-26, 2017 in the city of Vienna. As always you can contact your regional representative if you have issues you like the SC to have on the agenda or you need special support for prison education in your country.

Registration for the EPEA Conference will open as soon we can publish the fee. The conference will be held at the Fleming's Hotel in Vienna, November 16-19, 2017. Please book the dates.

Please be updated by looking at the EPEA home page www.epea.org and the conference page at www.epea.org/2017. Expect also soon to receive the next EPEA magazine in your email box.

Per Thrane.

Call for Conference Submissions

We would like to invite proposals from groups and individuals interested in holding a lecture (1 hour) or training seminar (45 minutes) at the 16th EPEA International Training Conference in Vienna, 15-19 November 2017. Lectures will take place one time in plenum, whilst we expect training seminars to take place at least two times during parallel workshop sessions.

Citizenship, participation and learner voice in prison

Are you doing any work in these areas in your prison? If so, are you interested in joining a KA2 funding application for Erasmus + to research this further and produce an international toolkit of good practice? Please contact Western Region representative Nina Champion for more information.
